Gender and Protection Referral Card

If you meet a survivor of gender based violence...

- 1. Do not try to solve the problem yourself.
- 2. Use words that comfort to the survivor and show respect.
- 3. Inform the person that you can refer them to someone who may be able to
- advise or assist them. 4. Maintain confidentiality and respect their wishes.

Gender and Protection Cluster

Gender and Protection Cluster

Gender and Protection Cluster

Gender and Protection Cluster

Gender and Protection Cluster

- Encourage the survivor to access health services immediately
- Encourage the survivor to access health services mineulately.
- 6. Always seek consent before referring to a support service, and if the survivor is highly vulnerable. offer to accompany them.
- 7. Listen but never judge, and don't record their personal data.

Gender and Protection Cluster

Gender and Protection Referral Card

If you meet a survivor of gender based violence...

- 1. Do not try to solve the problem yourself.
- 2. Use words that comfort to the survivor and show respect.
- 3. Inform the person that you can refer them to someone who may be able to
- advise or assist them.
- 4. Maintain confidentiality and respect their wishes.
- 5. Encourage the survivor to access health services immediately.
- 5. Always seek consent before referring to a support service, and if the survivor
- is highly vulnerable, offer to accompany them.
- 7. Listen but never judge, and don't record their personal data.

Gender and Protection Referral Card

If you meet a survivor of gender based violence...

- 1. Do not try to solve the problem yourself.
- 2. Use words that comfort to the survivor and show respect.
- 3. Inform the person that you can refer them to someone who may be able to advise or assist them.
- 4. Maintain confidentiality and respect their wishes.
- 5. Encourage the survivor to access health services immediately.
- 6. Always seek consent before referring to a support service, and if the survivor
- is highly vulnerable, offer to accompany them.
- 7. Listen but never judge, and don't record their personal data.

Gender and Protection Referral Card

- If you meet a survivor of aender based violence...
- 1. Do not try to solve the problem yourself.
- 2. Use words that comfort to the survivor and show respect.
- 3. Inform the person that you can refer them to someone who may be able to advise or assist them.
- duvise of assist th
- 4. Maintain confidentiality and respect their wishes.
- 5. Encourage the survivor to access health services immediately.
- 6. Always seek consent before referring to a support service, and if the survivor is highly vulnerable, offer to accompany them.
- 7. Listen but never judge, and don't record their personal data.

Gender and Protection Referral Card

If you meet a survivor of gender based violence...

- 1. Do not try to solve the problem yourself.
- 2. Use words that comfort to the survivor and show respect.
- 3. Inform the person that you can refer them to someone who may be able to
- advise or assist them.
- 4. Maintain confidentiality and respect their wishes.
- 5. Encourage the survivor to access health services immediately.
- Always seek consent before referring to a support service, and if the survivor
- is highly vulnerable, offer to accompany them.
- 7. Listen but never judge, and don't record their personal data.

If you meet a survivor of gender based violence ...

- 1. Do not try to solve the problem yourself.
- 2. Use words that comfort to the survivor and show respect.
- 3. Inform the person that you can refer them to someone who may be able to
- advise or assist them.
- 4. Maintain confidentiality and respect their wishes.
  - 5. Encourage the survivor to access health services immediately.
- 6. Always seek consent before referring to a support service, and if the survivor
- is highly vulnerable, offer to accompany them.
- 7. Listen but never judge, and don't record their personal data.

Gender and Protection Referral Card

- If you meet a survivor of gender based violence...
  1. Do not try to solve the problem yourself.
- 2. Use words that comfort to the survivor and show respect.
- 3. Inform the person that you can refer them to someone who may be able to
- advise or assist them.
- 4. Maintain confidentiality and respect their wishes.
- 5. Encourage the survivor to access health services immediately.
- 6. Always seek consent before referring to a support service, and if the survivor
- is highly vulnerable, offer to accompany them.
- 7. Listen but never judge, and don't record their personal data.

Gender and Protection Referral Card

If you meet a survivor of gender based violence ...

- 1. Do not try to solve the problem yourself.
- 2. Use words that comfort to the survivor and show respect.
- 3. Inform the person that you can refer them to someone who may be able to
- advise or assist them.
- 4. Maintain confidentiality and respect their wishes.
- 5. Encourage the survivor to access health services immediately.
- Always seek consent before referring to a support service, and if the survivor is highly vulnerable, offer to accompany them.
  - 7. Listen but never judge, and don't record their personal data

Gender and Protection Referral Card

Gender and Protection Referral Card

If you meet a survivor of gender based violence ...

- 1. Do not try to solve the problem yourself.
- Use words that comfort to the survivor and show respect.

7. Listen but never judge, and don't record their personal data.

 Inform the person that you can refer them to someone who may be able to advise or assist them.

Always seek consent before referring to a support service, and if the survivor

Maintain confidentiality and respect their wishes.

is highly vulnerable, offer to accompany them.

If you meet a survivor of gender based violence...

Do not try to solve the problem yourself

4. Maintain confidentiality and respect their wishes.

is highly vulnerable, offer to accompany them.

advise or assist them.

2. Use words that comfort to the survivor and show respect.

5. Encourage the survivor to access health services immediately.

7. Listen but never judge, and don't record their personal data.

3. Inform the person that you can refer them to someone who may be able to

6. Always seek consent before referring to a support service, and if the survivor

Encourage the survivor to access health services immediately.

